

Liana Brooke Guberman

Liana Brooke Guberman is a first year graduate student at SUNY Purchase Opera program. Born in NYC and raised in New Jersey, Liana attended Westminster Conservatory in Princeton during her high school years. As a member of the Juilliard Choral Union in 2005, she performed throughout New York City at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, and Symphony Space. Liana holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Boston University.

She attended Boston University's Tanglewood Institute in 2004 and 2005 and participated in the 2006 Florence Voice Seminar and 2007 Chautauqua Institution Voice Program. In the summer of 2008 she attended the Franz-Schubert-Institut in Austria to study German Lieder. This coming April, Liana will perform the role of "Pamina" in The Magic Flute at the Purchase Performing Arts Center. This summer, Liana will participate in a voice program in Italy called "Si Parla, Si Canta".

After she graduates, Liana plans to pursue a career as a professional opera singer, including participating in competitions in the US and Europe, as well postgraduate training in an artists' diploma program.

Mozart for Mom at the Rocky Hill Inn Eatery & Tavern Liana Guberman Is Back with Opera Favorites for Mothers Day

ROCKY HILL, NJ, April 13--- Opera is again on the menu at the Rocky Hill Inn when Liana Guberman returns to sing on Mothers Day Weekend. Liana will perform favorite arias from Puccini, Mozart and Gounod, starting at 7 pm on Saturday, April 8 and from 12 noon to 6 on Mother's Day, April 9th.

"We're delighted that Liana will again bring her talents to the dining room and to make Mothers Day extra- special for our guests," says Evan Blomgren, Chef and Proprietor of the historic restaurant in Rocky Hill.

Now a graduate student at SUNY Purchase Opera Program, Liana worked as both a server and a hostess at the Rocky Hill Eatery & Tavern. Her renditions of Happy Birthday delighted diners and soon led to performances in the restaurant's two dining rooms.

Liana attended Westminster Conservatory in Princeton during her high school years and holds a degree in music from Boston University. As a member of the Juilliard Choral Union she performed at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, and Symphony Space.

"This is a truly special experience that we can share with our guests," says Executive Chef and Proprietor, Evan Blomgren. "We're delighted to have such an accomplished artist as Liana as part of our Rocky Hill family." He notes that the menu – contemporary American with French and Italian influences - perfectly complements the arias. And, it's not the first time an opera singer has graced the premises. When visiting the area, the renowned soloist Beverly Sills often dropped by the Rocky Hill Inn for her favorite roast beef sandwich.

There is no additional charge for the performance. Diners can simply enjoy the music and the outstanding menu. Reservations are recommended. Phone: 609-683-8930.

The Rocky Hill Eatery & Tavern is located at 137 Washington Street, Rocky Hill, NJ 08553.

www.rockyhilltavern.com/

