Mozart, wine and chocolate to tempt Mom

Wednesday, May 05, 2010
STAFF WRITER

A little wine and a little Mozart, plus tickets to an upcoming chocolate festival are ways to help celebrate Mom's day this weekend.

The state's 34 wineries, including Silver Decoy Winery in Robbinsville, Hopewell Valley Vineyard in Hopewell Township and Unionville Vineyards near Ringoes, will reprise their annual Mother's Day Wine Trail from noon to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Activities vary at the wineries, and will be designed to honor moms. For information on events and the locations of the state's wineries see the Garden State Wine Growers Association website (newjerseywines.com).

Advance tickets are on sale for the Bucks County Chocolate Show set for 10 a.m.-4 p.m. May 23 at Eagle Fire Hall in New Hope, Pa. If the mom on your list loves chocolate, she can sample a variety of artisanal chocolates and baked goods at the show, which also explores "the world of chocolate" and the journey of cocoa pods from plant to quality treat.

Local opera singer Liana Guberman will return to the Rocky Hill Inn Eatery & Tavern in Rocky Hill on Saturday and Sunday to perform arias for moms and other customers. A former server at the inn, Guberman attended Westminster Conservatory in Princeton during her high school years and holds a degree in music from Boston University. As a member of the Juilliard Choral Union she performed at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall and Symphony Space. She will perform starting at 7 p.m. Saturday and from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday.

There is no additional charge for her performance. For more information see the restaurant website (rockyhilltavern.com) and for reservations call (609) 683-8930.

Tickets are $13 for adults, $10 for students and senior citizens. If purchased in advance, groups of 10 or more can buy tickets for $10 for adults and $7 for students and seniors. For information see the website (buckscountychocolateshow.com)....
